

Washington Mutual FUTURE TEACHERS CONFERENCE

October 20, 2001

EVALUATION FORM

PLEASE CIRCLE YOUR RESPONSE AND RETURN BEFORE YOU LEAVE

1. Gender: Male Female
2. Ethnicity: Asian Black Hispanic White Pacific Islander Native American Other
3. Age: 14-17 18-22 23-27 28-32 33-37 38 and over
4. Student /Teaching Status: Undergraduate Graduate New Teacher
5. College or School: _____
6. Teaching Goal: Elementary School Middle School High School
7. Circle and rate each of the sessions you attended.

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Session I
A Principal's Advice to New Teachers
Teaching Algebra Using Patterns
Help...I Have to Teach Math!
Special Education: Special Opportunities for You
Using Technology in the Classroom
Seed Investigation
 Session II
Multicultural Education Connects All Student to Achievement
Interview Strategies and Resume Writing
Using Music Throughout the Curriculum
The Process to Become a Teacher
The Digestive System
 Session III
New Teacher Panel
The Process to Become a Teacher
Middle School Math is Marvelous
How to Work Effectively with Parents
Bring Out the Writer in Every Child
8. Please rate the Keynote Address by Mark Boynton. Excellent Good Fair Poor
9. Please rate the Networking Booth Faire during lunch. Very Helpful Somewhat Helpful Not Very Helpful
10. What was the most useful part of today's conference?
11. What other sessions not presented today would you like to see at future conferences?
12. What recommendations would you make to improve future conferences?
13. How did you hear about the Future Teachers Conference?

College/University	School District	Planning Team Member	Newspaper/Media
Webpages	Other, please specify _____		